

Occupational Endorsement Certificate in Veterinary Assisting

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the occupational endorsement certificate, students will demonstrate:

- Knowledge of veterinary practice administration.
- Basic ability to handle and restrain large and small animals.
- Understanding of basic medical terminology.
- Introductory understanding of animal anatomy and physiology.
- Entry-level skills for laboratory procedures.
- Effective customer service and communication skills.