Academic Programming & Support for Military & Veteran Students

Academic Programming on the Bases (<https://www.uaa.alaska.edu/academics/institutional-effectiveness/departments/military-programs/index.cshtml/>)

UAA supports military personnel and their families throughout the UAA service area through UAA Military Programs. With two locations on Joint Base Elmendorf/Richardson (JBER), UAA offers courses for active-duty, National Guard and Reserve personnel; their spouses and dependents; and Department of Defense civilian personnel.

Course offerings are designed to meet military and veteran students' academic goals, including transferable general education courses, courses that support the completion of the Community College of the Air Force degrees, and courses that apply toward a range of UAA programs. In addition, staff at both locations can assist students with enrollment in any of UAA's extensive online course and program offerings.

UAA is an ArmyIgnitEd school and participates in the Air Force Education Portal and the My Career Advancement Program offered to spouses. UAA accepts DSST and CLEP exams and evaluates military training for degree-seeking students.

Quality professional learning enriches the knowledge and skills of educators and improves the educational experiences of all students. Therefore, the PACE Office partners with UAA academic units, schools, professional societies and other organizations to support learning opportunities such as 500-level courses and academies. The flexible structure of PACE allows for rapid response to the dynamic learning needs of educators and related services professionals around the state.

Secondary Programs

Dual Enrollment

UAA partners with school districts throughout Southcentral Alaska and across the state to provide transformational opportunities for high school students to earn college credit, with the goals of increasing access to post-secondary education, closing equity gaps, and improving overall student outcomes for the State of Alaska.

UAA's innovative approaches to dual enrollment align with national best practices, such as UAA's Middle College Schools, and they also meet immediate local needs, such as the Jump Start programs, the Aviation Summer Academy and the Certified Nurses Aid program.

To find out more about these many opportunities, go to UAA's dual enrollment website.
