The College of Business and Public Policy offers a Master of Business Administration in General Management as well as transcripted emphasis areas in: accounting, business intelligence and business analytics, entrepreneurship, health administration, leadership, marketing, and public sector and non-profit management. The MBA program is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International).

Program Policies and Administration

The faculty reserves the right, where warranted by evaluation of a student’s progress and apparent knowledge, to require additional coursework or other preparation to ensure the degree candidate possesses adequate professional skills and capabilities. This includes the ability to reason and communicate effectively.

The MBA program is the responsibility of CBPP’s graduate faculty, which acts as a policy-setting body and as an appeals board.

Contact the CBPP Graduate Programs Office for full program information, including application forms and procedures.
