

Graduate Certificate in Language and Literacy Education

The Graduate Certificate in Language and Literacy Education is designed for individuals seeking advanced professional preparation to increase knowledge and skills in working with English language learners in the P-12 setting. Those who teach English language learners in public or private settings, both in the United States and abroad, may enhance their knowledge and practice by completing this standards-based program.

English as a Second Language (ESL) Concentration

The ESL concentration is for candidates who are seeking one of the following:

- Institutional Recommendation for an English as a Second Language (ESL) endorsement on a current teacher certificate; or
- Advanced preparation in ESL for increasing professional performance in community programs.

Admission Requirements

- Complete the Admission Requirements for Graduate Certificates (<http://catalog.uaa.alaska.edu/academicpoliciesprocesses/admissions/graduate/>).
- Satisfy the admissions requirements for the program:
  - Document professional background (must hold or be eligible to hold a teacher certificate from the State of Alaska if seeking an ESL endorsement).
  - Provide a minimum of two letters of recommendation addressing the applicant's potential for program success.
  - Submit a current resume.
  - Submit a writing sample.
  - Contact the School of Education (<https://www.uaa.alaska.edu/academics/school-of-education/>) for an admissions packet.
