

University Security

The University employs non-sworn, non-armed, security officers to assist with non-criminal matters of safety on the campus, such as locking and unlocking buildings, providing escorts, and event security staffing. These security professionals wear a distinct uniform which is green shirts and khaki pants.