

Employee Behavior

For complaints about UAA employee (faculty, administrative staff or student employee) conduct not covered elsewhere in these complaint procedures, contact the supervisor of the employee.

Upon receipt of a written complaint, the employee's supervisor will review the written complaint and relevant information that is available, take action deemed appropriate to respond to the situation, and provide written notification to the individual who filed the complaint that the University responded to the complaint.