

General Education Requirements (GERs) for Baccalaureate Degrees

Intercultural Fluency GER

- The Intercultural Fluency GER addresses the knowledge and skills necessary to promote effective and appropriate interaction in a variety of cultural contexts, particularly in terms of the communities we serve.
- Students are required to complete a minimum of three credits of Intercultural Fluency GER coursework from the following list to graduate with an Associate of Arts, Associate of Science, or a baccalaureate degree.
- An Intercultural Fluency course can meet other GER or program requirements. However, the same course cannot meet both the AKNT requirement and the Intercultural Fluency requirement.

Student Learning Outcomes

After completing the Intercultural Fluency GER, UAA students shall be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the complex elements important to their own culture and/or socially defined groups in relation to their history, values, beliefs, and/or practices.
- Analyze differences among cultures and socially-defined groups in relation to their history, values, beliefs, and/or practices.
- Evaluate power, privilege, and equity with regards to their own culture and socially defined group compared with others.
- Apply knowledge and skills from a particular academic discipline as it relates to issues of cultural specificity and diversity.
