

Bachelor of Arts in English

Program Student Learning Outcomes

At the conclusion of the program, students will be able to:

- interpret texts in context with reasoned evidence drawn from English Studies' research methods;
- construct texts that are responsive to audience, purpose, genre, and voice; and
- engage scholarly, professional, and public discourse in diverse communities.