Bachelor of Arts in Communication

Program Student Learning Outcomes
Students graduating with a Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Communication will be able to:

• Explain, synthesize, apply, and critique communication theories, perspectives, principles, and concepts;
• Engage in communication scholarship;
• Create ethical, appropriate, and effective messages for the relationship, audience, purpose, and context;
• Critically analyze and respond to messages;
• Use communication to understand difference.