Associate of Applied Science in Construction Management

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the Associate of Applied Science in Construction Management student will be able to:

- Demonstrate effective communication, both orally and in writing.
- Create construction project cost estimates.
- Create construction project schedules.
- Demonstrate the ability to use current technology related to the construction process.
- Interpret construction documents (contracts, specifications, and drawings) used in managing a construction project.
- Apply basic principles of construction accounting.
- Use basic surveying techniques used in building layout.
- Discuss the basic principles of ethics in the construction industry.
- Identify the fundamentals of contracts, codes, and regulations that govern a construction project.
- Recognize basic construction methods, materials and equipment.
- Recognize basic safety hazards on a construction site and standard prevention measures.
- Recognize the basic principles of structural design.
- Recognize the basic principles of mechanical, electrical and piping systems.